

Tuesday • May 3, 2016, 6:30 – 8:30 PM

Studio 909 • Musicians Association Hawaii • 949 Kapiolani Blvd.

Media Council Hawaii (MCH) invites you to celebrate World Press Freedom Day at a reception honoring the Jon Van Dyke 1ST Amendment Project, co-sponsored by MCH and the William S. Richardson School of Law.

Join us to honor law students who are informing Hawaii high schools about 1st Amendment rights. For the past 10 years, the JVD 1st Amendment curriculum has been presented to more than 2000 Hawaii High School Students. You will enjoy a presentation on the latest issues regarding freedom of speech and have an opportunity to join in the discussion.

Light pupus will be served and there is no charge for the event. Although a donation to support our work will be appreciated!

There is limited free parking at the venue and on Kapiolani Blvd. Paid parking is available at the Blaisdell Center parking lot.

The JVD 1st Amendment Project is one of several activities of Media Council Hawaii. Please join us to find out more!

Since resources are limited, please
RSVP no later than April 22.

RSVP: mediacouncilinfo@gmail.com or leave message at 956-3000 (RSVPs only).

For questions, email: mediacouncilinfo@gmail.com.

MEDIA COUNCIL HAWAII, FIGHTING FOR MEDIA JUSTICE SINCE 1970